DISCOVER FASCINATING EMIRATI HERITAGE AT THE KING CAMEL VILLAGE IN DUBAI

The Dubai Royal King Ranch is the world's largest dromedary camel ranch, which was established in 1993 exclusively for the Dubai royal family. Here visitors can get up close and personal with thousands of Dromedary camels, feed them, enjoy rides, and take photos with the camels, as well as get themselves photographed in traditional attire in authentic Arabesque tents. The ranch also features a stunning Treasure Hall with exhibits that showcase the development of the UAE from the era of camels to current times, including an array of precious gem stones, pearls, and gold jewelry. Not to be missed is the variety of unique camel milk products available, from irresistible ice creams and chocolates to milk powder, soaps, and shampoo. Moreover, the ranch is home to a 30,000sqm Camel Racing Club with a specialized café and a 400-meter-long track hosting daily races, offering visitors an incredible opportunity to witness one of the most loved local sports.

STEP INTO THE WORLD'S FIRST-EVER HEALTHY LIVING ISLAND COMING TO ABU DHABI

SHA Residences Emirates will become the world's premier healthy living island, set to open in 2026. Through a partnership between Abu Dhabi's IMKAN and the internationally-acclaimed SHA Wellness Clinic, the ultimate wellness destination is set to redefine luxury living with holistic wellness at its core. Situated at Al Jurf, halfway between Abu Dhabi and Dubai, the development will include 86 villas, 49 apartments, and two penthouses, all offering beach access and surrounded by lush greenery and roaming gazelles. This exclusive enclave will boast round-the-clock access to doctors, therapists, yoga instructors, trainers, and chefs, ensuring residents' well-being is always prioritized. Moreover, a treasured landmark at the location is the palace where the late Sheikh Zayed bin Sultan Al Nahyan used to visit and reflect on key policies, including the formation of the UAE. In terms of connectivity, apart from the road network, a helipad and waterways from Abu Dhabi and Dubai will enhance accessibility to this idyllic retreat, making it the perfect wellness tourism destination.
